BILL ADAMS made his first appearance in the Conejo Players as a member of the cast in "Glad Tidings." Next he appeared in "Heaven Can Wait"; both of these were relatively small parts, but Bill broke into the big time as the unforgettable "Captain Boyle" in "Juno and The Peacock." Bill took on the directorial assignment of "Bad Seed." Throughout the history of Conejo Players he has contributed generously of his time and efforts in set construction and all phases of the theatre. In addition to his other activities he has served as president of the board. Bill lives in the Oaks with his wife and three children who are also members of the Conejo Players.

DWIGHT HAUSER was one of a group instrumental in reactivating the Conejo Players three years ago. He has served since as chairman of the Executive Committee. His efforts have been for the most part to directing and management. His only previous appearance as an actor with the local group was as Charlie Turner in "Nude With Pineapple" which he also directed. Hauser then designed the set for "Glad Tidings." Directed "White Sheep of the Family" and "Tender Trap." His last active duty was scenic design for "Desperate Hours." He makes his home in Lake Sherwood with his wife and four children.

ALBERTA BISHOP is a 1959 graduate of Camarillo High School. She lives in Camarillo Heights with her parents and a younger brother. She appeared at Ojai in "Time of the Coo-Coo"; also with the Oxnard Plaza Players in "The King and I" — "Compulsion" and "South Pacific." Later she was in "The Miser" at the Ventura College. At present she is taking dramatic coaching in Hollywood. We feel very lucky at having Alberta join our local group, and feel sure that she will go far in show business.

STEVE CARDWELL comes to the Conejo Players as a professional actor. After eight years on the stage he retired from the business to settle down in the Conejo Valley. His main interest is raising German shepherds and riding his beautiful horse "Jeannie."

Steve will long be remembered in his role as "Joe" in "The Tender Trap." He is now second vice president of our group and one of our most active members. He is teacher of the many who come to our workshop Tuesday evenings who want to learn more about acting.
